

Credit Union Education Scholarship Application

Montana Credit Unions for Community Development may grant education scholarship assistance to eligible applicants for:

1. Up to half of the registration fee and up to half of the reasonable travel expenses (travel scholarship not to exceed $200) for attendance at Montana CU League and/or League Service Group educational events;
2. Up to $150 for the cost of CUNA correspondence courses; or
3. Up to $500 for attendance at CUNA schools and conferences.

MONTANA'S CREDIT UNIONS
Educate. Advocate. Collaborate.

To be eligible for a scholarship, an applicant must be a director, committee member, or employee of a Montana's Credit Unions League affiliated credit union, which had total assets of less than $35 million at the end of the previous year. All scholarships are subject to availability of funds. No credit union may receive total scholarships in any one year aggregating more than $1,000.

MCUCD will verify attendance and/or satisfactory completion of course work by applicant. Failure to attend or satisfactorily complete any prepaid event or course will disqualify an applicant from receiving any future MCUCD scholarship or grant unless dispensation is granted by a majority of the MCUCD board of directors.
